

Track – The Basics

Overview

Gain fundamental knowledge of track components, nomenclature, basic maintenance activities as well as common defects and hazards. This course will teach you the requirements to maintain your track at a fully serviceable level, while managing costs through proper preventative maintenance.

Who should take this course?

Individuals with limited or no track knowledge wanting to understand core concepts as well as inspection and maintenance responsibilities.

For example, a plant manager that contracts out inspection and maintenance and wants to better understand the services and reporting being received.

Duration

- 1 day

Fees

- No fees apply

Locations

- Winnipeg, MB
- Homewood, IL

Track - In-Depth Inspection & Maintenance

Overview

The overall goal of this course is to provide you with the knowledge and practical skills to perform inspections on industrial track operated at 10 mph or less.

In addition to learning how to maintain your track and manage costs, participants will be trained on government regulations and the standards of how you can perform inspections on your Class 1 track.

Who should take this course?

Anyone required to perform inspections on low speed industrial tracks or anyone looking to gain more detailed knowledge on track defects, defect causes and measurements.

Participation in Track – The Basics or previous track knowledge is not required.

Duration

- 3 days

Fee

- No fees apply

Locations

- Winnipeg, MB
- Homewood, IL

Rail Safety

Overview

Learn the fundamental attention areas related to railway safety. This class covers trends and understanding of risk in railroad environments and up to date methods of mitigating these risks. Yard safety, switch cleaning, blue flag application, proper use of derails, and clearances will also be covered.

Who should take this course?

Managers, risk managers, and employees that can benefit from understanding the prominent risks in the railroad environment as well as the railroad industries best practices for mitigating those risks.

Duration

- 1 day

Fee

- No fees apply

Locations

- Winnipeg, MB
- Homewood, IL

Non-Main Track & Yard Switching Operations

Overview

A comprehensive review of best practices for industrial switching operations and handling on-track equipment.

Upon completion of this course in Canada, you will be rules-certified.

Please note that certification is only valid in the country where you are trained. Therefore if you only operate in Canada, you will need to take this course in Canada.

Who should take this course?

Designed for those who are responsible for moving cars within customer plant limits, and to gain an understanding of the rules to operate in Rule 105 territory.

Duration

- 3 days

Fee

- $450 in Canada
- No fee in USA

Locations

- Winnipeg, MB
- Homewood, IL

Operating a Track Mobile

Overview

This course is an operators training course for freight car mover operation. This course familiarizes a new operator with the ability to properly inspect and operate this specialized piece of machinery as well as understanding the safety elements that relate to trackmobile operation.

Completion of Non-Main Track & Yard Switching Operations is a prerequisite for this course.*

Who should take this course?

Employees that are tasked with operating car movers as a part of their work assignments.

Duration

- 1 day

Fee

- No fees apply

Locations

- Winnipeg, MB
- Homewood, IL