2020 QUARTERLY REVIEW SECOND QUARTER

Celebrating 100 years

CN's Quarterly Results Demonstrate Railroad's Resiliency During Unprecedented Economic Times

Company Contributing to Economic Recovery Through Reaffirmed and New Investments

MONTREAL, July 21, 2020 – CN (TSX: CNR) (NYSE: CNI) today reported its financial and operating results for the second quarter ended June 30, 2020.

"By being adaptable, we were able to swiftly rightsize our resources and continue to provide our essential transportation services to our customers, the economy, and the communities we serve. I could not be prouder of our railroaders as they never stopped working to keep our customers' goods and the North American economy moving safely and efficiently throughout this pandemic. The decisive actions we took early on in March, well before the pandemic impacted the North American economy, allowed us to deliver over C$1B of free cash flow during this recessionary quarter. I'm pleased to reaffirm our commitment in encouraging the economic recovery through our C$2.9B capital investment plan for 2020 as well as our new investment announcement of the purchase of approximately 1,500 new, efficient, high-capacity, covered hopper cars to expand our grain export business for delivery starting in January of 2021. Our strategic long-term approach to investments, together with our continued focus on cost and deployment of innovative technology, as well as our commitment to enabling trade, position us to keep delivering long-term value to our stakeholders."

- JJ Ruest, President and Chief Executive Officer of CN

Second-quarter 2020 revenues, traffic volumes and expenses

Revenues for the second quarter of 2020 were C$3,209 million, a decrease of C$750 million or 19 per cent, when compared to the same period in 2019. The decrease in revenues was mainly due to lower volumes across most commodity groups caused by the COVID-19 pandemic and lower applicable fuel surcharge rates, which were partly offset by increased shipments of Canadian grain, higher Canadian coal exports via west coast ports as well as freight rate increases. RTMs, measuring the relative weight and distance of freight transported by CN, declined by 18 per cent from the year-earlier period. Freight revenue per RTM decreased by one per cent over the year-earlier period.

Operating expenses for the second quarter increased by six per cent to C$2,424 million, mainly driven by a loss on assets held for sale resulting from the Company's decision to market for sale for on-going rail operations, certain non-core lines, partly offset by lower fuel and labor costs. Excluding this one-time charge, operating expenses were down 15% versus last year.

(1) Non-GAAP Measures

CN reports its financial results in accordance with United States generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP). CN also uses non-GAAP measures in this news release that do not have any standardized meaning prescribed by GAAP, such as adjusted performance measures. For further details of these non-GAAP measures, including a reconciliation to the most directly comparable GAAP financial measures, refer to the attached supplementary schedule, Non-GAAP Measures.

(2) Forward-Looking Statements

Certain statements included in this news release constitute "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the United States Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 and under Canadian securities laws. By their nature, forward-looking statements involve risks, uncertainties and assumptions. The Company cautions that its assumptions may not materialize and that current economic conditions render such assumptions, although reasonable at the time they were made, subject to greater uncertainty. Forward-looking statements by their nature address matters that are, to different degrees, uncertain, such as statements about the impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic on our business operations, financial results and financial position and on the global supply chain. Forward-looking statements may be identified by the use of terminology such as "believes," "expects," "anticipates," "assumes," "outlook," "plans," "targets," or other similar words.

Forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and involve risks, uncertainties and other factors which may cause the actual results or performance of the Company to be materially different from the outlook or any future results or performance implied by such statements. Accordingly, readers are advised not to place undue reliance on forward-looking statements. Important risk factors that could affect the forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, the duration and effects of the COVID-19 pandemic, general economic and business conditions, particularly in the context of the COVID-19 pandemic; industry competition; inflation, currency and interest rate fluctuations; changes in fuel prices; legislative and/or regulatory developments; compliance with environmental laws and regulations; actions by regulators; increases in maintenance and operating costs; security threats; reliance on technology and related cybersecurity risk; trade restrictions or other changes to international trade arrangements; transportation of hazardous materials; various events which could disrupt operations, including illegal blockades of rail networks, and natural events such as severe weather, droughts, fires, floods and earthquakes; climate change; labor negotiations and disruptions; environmental claims; uncertainties of investigations, proceedings or other types of claims and litigation; risks and liabilities arising from derailments; timing and completion of capital programs; and other risks detailed from time to time in reports filed by CN with securities regulators in Canada and the United States. Reference should be made to Management's Discussion and Analysis (MD&A) in CN's annual and interim reports, Annual Information Form and Form 40-F, filed with Canadian and U.S. securities regulators and available on CN's website, for a description of major risk factors.

Forward-looking statements reflect information as of the date on which they are made. CN assumes no obligation to update or revise forward-looking statements to reflect future events, changes in circumstances, or changes in beliefs, unless required by applicable securities laws. In the event CN does update any forward-looking statement, no inference should be made that CN will make additional updates with respect to that statement, related matters, or any other forward-looking statement.

Non-GAAP Measures – unaudited

In this supplementary schedule, the "Company" or "CN" refers to Canadian National Railway Company, together with its wholly-owned subsidiaries. Financial information included in this schedule is expressed in Canadian dollars, unless otherwise noted.

CN reports its financial results in accordance with United States generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP). The Company also uses non-GAAP measures that do not have any standardized meaning prescribed by GAAP, including adjusted performance measures, constant currency, free cash flow and adjusted debt-to-adjusted earnings before interest, income taxes, depreciation and amortization (EBITDA) multiple. These non-GAAP measures may not be comparable to similar measures presented by other companies. From management's perspective, these non-GAAP measures are useful measures of performance and provide investors with supplementary information to assess the Company's results of operations and liquidity. These non-GAAP measures should not be considered in isolation or as a substitute for financial measures prepared in accordance with GAAP.

Adjusted performance measures

Management believes that adjusted net income, adjusted earnings per share, adjusted operating income and adjusted operating ratio are useful measures of performance that can facilitate period-to-period comparisons, as they exclude items that do not necessarily arise as part of CN's normal day-to-day operations and could distort the analysis of trends in business performance. Management uses adjusted performance measures, which exclude certain income and expense items in its results that management believes are not reflective of CN's underlying business operations, to set performance goals and as a means to measure CN's performance. The exclusion of such income and expense items in these measures does not, however, imply that these items are necessarily non-recurring. These measures do not have any standardized meaning prescribed by GAAP and therefore, may not be comparable to similar measures presented by other companies.

For the three and six months ended June 30, 2020, the Company's adjusted net income was $908 million, or $1.28 per diluted share, and $1,778 million, or $2.49 per diluted share, respectively. The adjusted figures for the three and six months ended June 30, 2020 exclude a loss of $486 million, or $363 million after-tax ($0.51 per diluted share) resulting from the Company's decision to market for sale for on-going rail operations, certain non-core lines in Wisconsin, Michigan and Ontario. The adjusted figures for the six months ended June 30, 2020 also exclude a current income tax recovery of $141 million ($0.20 per diluted share) in the first quarter resulting from the enactment of the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act, a U.S. tax-and-spending package aimed at providing additional stimulus to address the economic impact of the COVID-19 pandemic.

For the three and six months ended June 30, 2019, the Company's adjusted net income was $1,250 million, or $1.73 per diluted share, and $2,098 million, or $2.90 per diluted share, respectively. The adjusted figures for the three and six months ended June 30, 2019 exclude a deferred income tax recovery of $112 million ($0.15 per diluted share), resulting from the enactment of a lower provincial corporate income tax rate. The adjusted figures for the six months ended June 30, 2019 also exclude a depreciation and amortization expense of $84 million, or $62 million after-tax ($0.09 per diluted share) in the first quarter, related to costs previously capitalized for a Positive Train Control (PTC) back office system following the deployment of a replacement system.

Constant currency

Financial results at constant currency allow results to be viewed without the impact of fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates, thereby facilitating period-to-period comparisons in the analysis of trends in business performance. Measures at constant currency are considered non-GAAP measures and do not have any standardized meaning prescribed by GAAP and therefore, may not be comparable to similar measures presented by other companies. Financial results at constant currency are obtained by translating the current period results denominated in US dollars at the foreign exchange rates of the comparable period in the prior year. The average foreign exchange rates were $1.39 and $1.37 per US$1.00 for the three and six months ended June 30, 2020, respectively, and $1.34 and $1.33 per US$1.00 for the three and six months ended June 30, 2019, respectively.

On a constant currency basis, the Company's net income for the three and six months ended June 30, 2020 would have been lower by $13 million ($0.02 per diluted share).

Free cash flow

Management believes that free cash flow is a useful measure of liquidity as it demonstrates the Company's ability to generate cash for debt obligations and for discretionary uses such as payment of dividends, share repurchases, and strategic opportunities. The Company defines its free cash flow measure as the difference between net cash provided by operating activities and net cash used in investing activities, adjusted for the impact of business acquisitions, if any. Free cash flow does not have any standardized meaning prescribed by GAAP and therefore, may not be comparable to similar measures presented by other companies.

The following table provides a reconciliation of net cash provided by operating activities as reported for the three and six months ended June 30, 2020 and 2019, to free cash flow:

| In millions | Three months ended June 30 | | Six months ended June 30 | |

Non-GAAP Measures – unaudited

Adjusted debt-to-adjusted EBITDA multiple

Management believes that the adjusted debt-to-adjusted EBITDA multiple is a useful credit measure because it reflects the Company's ability to service its debt and other long-term obligations. The Company calculates the adjusted debt-to-adjusted EBITDA multiple as adjusted debt divided by adjusted EBITDA. These measures do not have any standardized meaning prescribed by GAAP and therefore, may not be comparable to similar measures presented by other companies.

The following table provides a reconciliation of debt and net income to the adjusted measures presented below, which have been used to calculate the adjusted debt-to-adjusted EBITDA multiple:

Notes to Unaudited Consolidated Financial Statements

1 – Basis of presentation

In these notes, the "Company" or "CN" refers to Canadian National Railway Company, together with its wholly-owned subsidiaries.

The accompanying unaudited Interim Consolidated Financial Statements, expressed in Canadian dollars, have been prepared in accordance with United States generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP) for interim financial statements. Accordingly, they do not include all of the disclosures required by GAAP for complete financial statements. In management's opinion, all adjustments (consisting of normal recurring accruals) considered necessary for fair presentation have been included. Interim operating results are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the full year.

These unaudited Interim Consolidated Financial Statements have been prepared using accounting policies consistent with those used in preparing CN's 2019 Annual Consolidated Financial Statements, except as disclosed in Note 2 – Recent accounting pronouncements and policies, and should be read in conjunction with such statements and Notes thereto.

2 – Recent accounting pronouncements and policies

The following recent Accounting Standards Update (ASU) issued by the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) was adopted by the Company during the first half of 2020:

ASU 2016-13 Financial instruments - Credit losses (Topic 326): Measurement of credit losses on financial instruments

The ASU requires financial assets measured at amortized cost to be presented at the net amount expected to be collected. The new standard replaces the current incurred loss impairment methodology with one that reflects expected credit losses.

The Company adopted this standard in the first quarter of 2020 with an effective date of January 1, 2020. The adoption of this standard did not have an impact on the Company's Consolidated Financial Statements, other than for the new disclosure requirements.

The following recent ASU issued by FASB came into effect in the first half of 2020 and has not been adopted by the Company:

ASU 2020-04 Reference rate reform (Topic 848): Facilitation of the effects of reference rate reform on financial reporting

London Interbank Offered Rate (LIBOR) is a benchmark interest rate referenced in a variety of agreements that are used by all types of entities. At the end of 2021, banks will no longer be required to report information that is used to determine LIBOR. As a result, LIBOR could be discontinued. Other interest rates used globally could also be discontinued for similar reasons.

The ASU provides optional expedients and exceptions for applying generally accepted accounting principles to transactions affected by reference rate reform if certain criteria are met. These transactions include contract modifications, hedging relationships, and sale or transfer of debt securities classified as held-to-maturity.

The provisions of the ASU are effective starting on March 12, 2020; however, they will only be available until December 31, 2022, when the reference rate replacement activity is expected to be completed. The Company may apply the provisions of the ASU as of the beginning of a reporting period when the elections are made, or prospectively from the date within an interim period that includes or is subsequent to March 12, 2020. The Company currently has outstanding loans and finance lease obligations referencing LIBOR totaling approximately US$350 million that would be affected by the provisions of this ASU. The Company is evaluating the effects that the adoption of the ASU will have on its Consolidated Financial Statements and related disclosures, and whether it will elect to apply any of the optional expedients and exceptions provided in the ASU.

Other recently issued ASUs required to be applied for periods beginning on or after June 30, 2020 have been evaluated by the Company and are not expected to have a significant impact on the Company's Consolidated Financial Statements.

In the first quarter of 2020, the following accounting policy was updated as a result of the adoption of ASU 2016-13 Financial instruments - Credit losses (Topic 326): Measurement of credit losses on financial instruments:

Accounting policy for accounts receivable

Accounts receivable are recorded at cost net of billing adjustments and an allowance for credit losses. The allowance for credit losses is based on relevant information about past events, including historical experience, current conditions, and reasonable and supportable forecasts that affect the collectibility of the reported amount. When a receivable is deemed uncollectible, it is written off against the allowance for credit losses. Subsequent recoveries of amounts previously written off are credited to bad debt expense in Casualty and other in the Consolidated Statements of Income.

Notes to Unaudited Consolidated Financial Statements

In the second quarter of 2020, the following accounting policy was implemented as a result of the Company's decision to market for sale for on-going rail operations, certain non-core lines:

Accounting policy for assets held for sale

Assets that are classified as held for sale are measured at the lower of their carrying amount or fair value less expected selling costs ("estimated selling price") with a loss recognized to the extent that the carrying amount exceeds the estimated selling price. The classification is applicable at the date upon which the sale of assets is probable, and the assets are available for immediate sale in their present condition. The transfer of the assets must also be expected to qualify for recognition as a completed sale within the year following the date of classification.

Assets once classified as held for sale, are not subject to depreciation or amortization and both the assets and any liabilities directly associated with the assets held for sale are classified as current in the Company's Consolidated Balance Sheets.

Subsequent changes to the estimated selling price of assets held for sale are recorded as gains or losses to income wherein the recognition of subsequent gains is limited to the cumulative loss previously recognized.

Acquisition of intermodal division of H&R Transport Limited

On December 2, 2019, the Company acquired the intermodal temperature-controlled transportation division of the Alberta-based H&R Transport Limited ("H&R"). The acquisition positions CN to expand its presence in moving customer goods by offering more end to end rail supply chain solutions to a wider range of customers.

The Company's Consolidated Balance Sheets include the assets and liabilities of H&R as of December 2, 2019, the acquisition date. Since the acquisition date, H&R's results of operations have been included in the Company's results of operations. The Company has not provided pro forma information relating to the pre-acquisition period as it was not material.

Acquisition of the TransX Group of Companies

On March 20, 2019, the Company acquired the Manitoba-based TransX Group of Companies ("TransX"). TransX provides various transportation and logistics services, including intermodal, truckload, less than truckload and specialized services. The acquisition positions CN to strengthen its intermodal business, and allows the Company to expand capacity and foster additional supply chain solutions.

The Company's Consolidated Balance Sheets include the assets and liabilities of TransX as of March 20, 2019, the acquisition date. Since the acquisition date, TransX's results of operations have been included in the Company's results of operations. The Company has not provided pro forma information relating to the pre-acquisition period as it was not material.

The total purchase price of $192 million included an initial cash payment of $170 million, additional consideration of $25 million, less an adjustment of $3 million in the fourth quarter of 2019 to reflect the settlement of working capital. The acquisition date fair value of the additional consideration, recorded as a contingent liability, was estimated based on the expected outcome of operational and financial targets, and remained unchanged since the acquisition date. The fair value measure was based on Level 3 inputs not observable in the market. On August 27, 2019, the additional consideration was paid.

The following table summarizes the consideration transferred to acquire TransX, as well as the fair value of the assets acquired and liabilities assumed, and goodwill that were recognized as part of the transaction:

5 – Assets held for sale

In the second quarter of 2020, the Company committed to a plan and is actively marketing for sale for on-going rail operations, certain non-core lines in Wisconsin, Michigan and Ontario representing approximately 850 miles and has met the criteria for classification of the related assets as assets held for sale. Accordingly, a $486 million loss ($363 million after-tax) was recorded to adjust the carrying amount of these track and roadway assets to their estimated selling price. The carrying amount of assets held for sale of $90 million is included in Other current assets in the Consolidated Balance Sheet at June 30, 2020. The estimated selling price is based primarily on discounted cash flow projections. These projections are based on Level 3 inputs of the fair value hierarchy and reflect the Company's best estimate of market participants' pricing of the assets as well as the general condition of the assets. The significant assumptions in the valuation model include projected cash flows, discount rate and growth rate. Actual results could differ from the Company's estimates, but such differences are not expected to have a material impact on the fair value assessment.

(2) The Company designates US dollar-denominated debt of the parent company as a foreign currency hedge of its net investment in foreign operations. Accordingly, from the dates of designation, foreign exchange gains and losses on translation of the Company's US dollar-denominated debt are recorded in Accumulated other comprehensive loss, which minimizes the volatility of earnings resulting from the conversion of US dollar-denominated debt into Canadian dollars.

(3) Reclassified to Other components of net periodic benefit income in the Consolidated Statements of Income and included in net periodic benefit cost. See Note 7 - Pensions and other postretirement benefits.

(4) Included in Income tax expense in the Consolidated Statements of Income.

14 – Major commitments and contingencies

Purchase commitments

As at June 30, 2020, the Company had fixed and variable commitments to purchase rail, information technology services and licenses, wheels, engineering services, locomotives, railroad ties, rail cars, as well as other equipment and services with a total estimated cost of $1,245 million. Costs of variable commitments were estimated using forecasted prices and volumes.

Contingencies

In the normal course of business, the Company becomes involved in various legal actions seeking compensatory and occasionally punitive damages, including actions brought on behalf of various purported classes of claimants and claims relating to employee and third-party personal injuries, occupational disease and property damage, arising out of harm to individuals or property allegedly caused by, but not limited to, derailments or other accidents.

As at June 30, 2020, the Company had aggregate reserves for personal injury and other claims of $367 million, of which $85 million was recorded as a current liability ($352 million as at December 31, 2019, of which $91 million was recorded as a current liability).

Although the Company considers such provisions to be adequate for all its outstanding and pending claims, the final outcome with respect to actions outstanding or pending as at June 30, 2020, or with respect to future claims, cannot be reasonably determined. When establishing provisions for contingent liabilities the Company considers, where a probable loss estimate cannot be made with reasonable certainty, a range of potential probable losses for each such matter, and records the amount it considers the most reasonable estimate within the range. However, when no amount within the range is a better estimate than any other amount, the minimum amount in the range is accrued. For matters where a loss is reasonably possible but not probable, a range of potential losses cannot be estimated due to various factors which may include the limited availability of facts, the lack of demand for specific damages and the fact that proceedings were at an early stage. Based on information currently available, the Company believes that the eventual outcome of the actions against the Company will not, individually or in the aggregate, have a material adverse effect on the Company's financial position. However, due to the inherent inability to predict with certainty unforeseeable future developments, there can be no assurance that the ultimate resolution of these actions will not have a material adverse effect on the Company's results of operations, financial position or liquidity.

Environmental matters

The Company's operations are subject to numerous federal, provincial, state, municipal and local environmental laws and regulations in Canada and the U.S. concerning, among other things, emissions into the air; discharges into waters; the generation, handling, storage, transportation, treatment and disposal of waste, hazardous substances, and other materials; decommissioning of underground and aboveground storage tanks; and soil and groundwater contamination. A risk of environmental liability is inherent in railroad and related transportation operations; real estate ownership, operation or control; and other commercial activities of the Company with respect to both current and past operations.

The Company is or may be liable for remediation costs at individual sites, in some cases along with other potentially responsible parties, associated with actual or alleged contamination. The ultimate cost of addressing these known contaminated sites cannot be definitively established given that the estimated environmental liability for any given site may vary depending on the nature and extent of the contamination; the nature of anticipated response actions, taking into account the available clean-up techniques; evolving regulatory standards governing environmental liability; and the number of potentially responsible parties and their financial viability. As a result, liabilities are recorded based on the results of a four-phase assessment conducted on a site-by-site basis. A liability is initially recorded when environmental assessments occur, remedial efforts are probable, and when the costs, based on a specific plan of action in terms of the technology to be used and the extent of the corrective action required, can be reasonably estimated. The Company estimates the costs related to a particular site using cost scenarios established by external consultants based on the extent of contamination and expected costs for remedial efforts. In the case of multiple parties, the Company accrues its allocable share of liability taking into account the Company's alleged responsibility, the number of potentially responsible parties and their ability to pay their respective share of the liability. Adjustments to initial estimates are recorded as additional information becomes available.

The Company's provision for specific environmental sites is undiscounted and includes costs for remediation and restoration of sites, as well as monitoring costs. Costs related to any unknown existing or future contamination will be accrued in the period in which they become probable and reasonably estimable.

As at June 30, 2020, the Company had aggregate accruals for environmental costs of $58 million, of which $40 million was recorded as a current liability ($57 million as at December 31, 2019, of which $38 million was recorded as a current liability). The Company anticipates that the majority of the liability at June 30, 2020 will be paid out over the next five years. Based on the information currently available, the Company considers its accruals to be adequate.

Guarantees and indemnifications

A description of the Company's guarantees and indemnifications is provided in Note 19 – Major commitments and contingencies to the Company's 2019 Annual Consolidated Financial Statements.

As at June 30, 2020, the Company had outstanding letters of credit of $429 million ($424 million as at December 31, 2019) under the committed bilateral letter of credit facilities and $154 million ($149 million as at December 31, 2019) under the uncommitted bilateral letter of credit facilities, and surety and other bonds of $168 million ($169 million as at December 31, 2019), all issued by financial institutions with investment grade credit ratings to third parties to indemnify them in the event the Company does not perform its contractual obligations.

As at June 30, 2020, the maximum potential liability under these guarantee instruments was $751 million ($742 million as at December 31, 2019), of which $686 million ($681 million as at December 31, 2019) related to other employee benefit liabilities and workers' compensation and $65 million ($61 million as at December 31, 2019) related to other liabilities. The guarantee instruments expire at various dates between 2020 and 2023.

As at June 30, 2020, the Company had not recorded a liability with respect to guarantees and indemnifications as the Company did not expect to make any payments under its guarantees and indemnifications.

15 – Financial instruments

Derivative financial instruments

The Company uses derivative financial instruments from time to time in the management of its foreign currency and interest rate exposures. The Company has limited involvement with derivative financial instruments in the management of its risks and does not hold or issue them for trading or speculative purposes. As at June 30, 2020, the Company had outstanding foreign exchange forward contracts with a notional value of US$938 million (US$1,088 million as at December 31, 2019). Changes in the fair value of foreign exchange forward contracts, resulting from changes in foreign exchange rates, are recognized in Other income in the Consolidated Statement of Income as they occur.

For the three and six months ended June 30, 2020, the Company recorded a loss of $60 million and a gain of $66 million, respectively, related to foreign exchange forward contracts compared to losses of $26 million and $70 million, respectively, for the same periods in 2019. These gains and losses were largely offset by the re-measurement of US dollar-denominated monetary assets and liabilities recorded in Other income.

As at June 30, 2020, the fair value of outstanding foreign exchange forward contracts included in Other current assets and Accounts payable and other was $8 million and $28 million, respectively ($nil and $24 million, respectively, as at December 31, 2019).

Fair value of financial instruments

The financial instruments that the Company measures at fair value on a recurring basis in periods subsequent to initial recognition are categorized into the following levels of the fair value hierarchy based on the degree to which inputs are observable:

- Level 1: Inputs are quoted prices for identical instruments in active markets
- Level 2: Significant inputs (other than quoted prices included in Level 1) are observable
- Level 3: Significant inputs are unobservable

The carrying amounts of Cash and cash equivalents and Restricted cash and cash equivalents approximate fair value. These financial instruments include highly liquid investments purchased three months or less from maturity, for which the fair value is determined by reference to quoted prices in active markets.

The carrying amounts of Accounts receivable, Income taxes receivable, Other receivables included in Other current assets, and Accounts payable and other approximate fair value. The fair value of these financial instruments is not determined using quoted prices, but rather from market observable information. The fair value of derivative financial instruments, classified as Level 2, used to manage the Company's exposure to foreign currency risk and included in Other current assets and Accounts payable and other is measured by discounting future cash flows using a discount rate derived from market data for financial instruments subject to similar risks and maturities.

The carrying amount of the Company's debt does not approximate fair value. The fair value is estimated based on quoted market prices for the same or similar debt instruments, as well as discounted cash flows using current interest rates for debt with similar terms, company rating, and remaining maturity. The Company classifies debt as Level 2. As at June 30, 2020, the Company's debt, excluding finance leases, had a carrying amount of $14,052 million ($13,662 million as at December 31, 2019) and a fair value of $16,966 million ($15,667 million as at December 31, 2019).

Business profile

CN is engaged in the rail and related transportation business. CN's network, of approximately 20,000 route miles of track spans Canada and mid-America, uniquely connecting three coasts: the Atlantic, the Pacific and the Gulf of Mexico. CN's extensive network and efficient connections to all Class I railroads provide CN customers access to Canada, the United States (U.S.) and Mexico. A true backbone of the economy, CN handles over $250 billion worth of goods annually and carries over 300 million tons of cargo, serving exporters, importers, retailers, farmers and manufacturers.

For the year ended December 31, 2019, CN's largest commodity group accounted for 25% of total revenues. Management's Discussion and Analysis

COVID-19 Pandemic

The global economy continues to face unprecedented uncertainty arising from the COVID-19 pandemic, which has necessitated governments, institutions and communities to take extraordinary actions. Businesses are facing highly volatile financial and operational environments, as the severity and duration of the pandemic remain uncertain. The Company has been designated an essential service provider and continues to execute its business continuity plans to deliver for its customers, the economy and the communities in which it operates, demonstrating its key role in the integrated global supply chain.

In response to the COVID-19 pandemic, CN deployed its multi-phase Pandemic Plan in March and instituted various measures to protect its employees, customers, and the communities in which CN operates:

- CN's medical team and occupational health department, who are members of the Association of American Railroads Health Committee, played a pivotal role in CN's pandemic planning, taking direction from the World Health Organization, as well as provincial, state and federal authorities, as required, and offering best practices shared amongst North American railroads.
- With safety as its core value, CN implemented preventative measures to ensure the safety of its employees and by extension of its customers and communities. These measures included a work from home policy for employees not required on site, restriction of employee travel, increasing social distancing measures at CN locations, and amplifying cleaning regimens on trains, in terminals, in bunkhouses and in offices.
- Understanding the importance of timely and reliable information, CN has increased the communication to its employees, including a summary of reliable COVID-19 resources and a summary of frequently asked questions are available on CN's website. The Company provides frequent updates on the state of its operations, as well as an employee support tool for any questions or concerns.
- Throughout the pandemic, CN demonstrated an understanding of how critical maintaining safe and efficient operations is to support the North American economy. As an essential service, CN took the important step of segregating its rail traffic control functions and spreading these mission-critical employees over six highly secure sites to better protect them from contamination.
- With relationships spanning eight provinces, 16 states and over 2,000 communities across the Company's network, CN plays an important role in strengthening the greater society. In these trying times, CN donated over $1 million to charities directly or indirectly affected by the economic impacts of the pandemic, such as food banks, homeless shelters, domestic violence shelters, healthcare centers, and anti-poverty organizations, in the communities where CN operates.
- The Company encourages its employees to give back to their community by safely and responsibly lending a hand, with practices including good hygiene, minimizing exposure by practicing social distancing, and leveraging the various electronic means of communication with stakeholders, officials, contractors, and suppliers.

Assets held for sale

In the second quarter of 2020, the Company committed to a plan and is actively marketing for sale for on-going rail operations, certain non-core lines in Wisconsin, Michigan and Ontario representing approximately 850 miles and has met the criteria for classification of the related assets as assets held for sale. Accordingly, a $486 million loss ($363 million after-tax) was recorded to adjust the carrying amount of these track and roadway assets to their estimated selling price. The carrying amount of assets held for sale of $90 million is included in Other current assets in the Consolidated Balance Sheet at June 30, 2020. The estimated selling price is based primarily on discounted cash flow projections. These projections are based on Level 3 inputs of the fair value hierarchy and reflect the Company's best estimate of market participants' pricing of the assets as well as the general condition of the assets. The significant assumptions in the valuation model include projected cash flows, discount rate and growth rate. Actual results could differ from the Company's estimates, but such differences are not expected to have a material impact on the fair value assessment.

Management's Discussion and Analysis

Acquisitions

On April 6, 2020, the Surface Transportation Board (STB) issued its decision conditionally approving the acquisition of the Massena rail line from CSX Corporation ("CSX"), which the Company announced its agreement to purchase on August 29, 2019. On June 6, 2020, CN and CSX sought reconsideration asking the STB to remove its condition which requires the parties to propose a change to the line sale agreement for the STB's review. The petitions for reconsideration remain pending for the STB's decision. The acquisition represents more than 220 miles of track between Valleyfield, Quebec, and Woodard, New York, and will allow CN to continue to expand its network and foster additional supply chain solutions.

In the first quarter of 2020, the Company completed the purchase price allocation of the Manitoba based TransX Group of Companies ("TransX") which was acquired on March 20, 2019. The fair value of net assets acquired was adjusted to reflect the settlement of working capital and other adjustments in the fourth quarter of 2019, and the changes to current and deferred income tax balances. The acquisition positions CN to strengthen its intermodal business, and allows the Company to expand capacity and foster additional supply chain solutions.

On December 2, 2019, the Company acquired the intermodal temperature-controlled transportation division of the Alberta-based H&R Transport Limited ("H&R"). The acquisition positions CN to expand its presence in moving customer goods by offering more end to end rail supply chain solutions to a wider range of customers.

2020 Business outlook and assumptions - Prudent financial management in unprecedented economic uncertainty

The rapid development and fluidity of the COVID-19 pandemic has significantly increased uncertainty in CN's operating environment. Starting in late March 2020, the continued spread of the COVID-19 pandemic has resulted in significantly weaker demand for freight transportation services, which the Company expects to persist for the foreseeable future.

Widespread layoffs by its customers, government mandated self-quarantines and closures for non-essential businesses have significantly curbed customer demand. Negative effects on demand have occurred across many commodities that CN transports, including: automotive due to temporary closures of automotive plants, refined petroleum products (gasoline, diesel and jet fuel) due to travel restrictions, forest products due to lower economic activity, industrial products due to a slowdown in North American manufacturing, and intermodal due to lower global production and consumption as a result of temporary closure of plants, reduced household incomes and consumer confidence.

The Company is part of an integrated global supply chain and the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on aspects of the supply chain, including ocean carriers, ports, terminals, trucking firms, and other railroads, is having a consequent impact on CN's operations.

In response to the rapidly emerging economic backdrop, CN has undertaken actions to reduce costs and protect the Company's liquidity:

- CN adjusted its resources and costs to reflect the rapid and significant reduction in demand for rail transportation services, including temporarily storing locomotives and railcars, as well as reducing headcount, crew starts, train starts, local yards, mechanical shops, and last mile trucking operations to match the decline in volumes;
- In light of anticipated lower volumes for the year, the 2020 capital expenditure program was reduced in the first quarter of 2020 by a net amount of $0.1 billion from $3.0 billion to $2.9 billion;
- CN paused its share repurchases at the end of March 2020 due to the current economic circumstances and will reassess on an ongoing basis; and
- CN issued a US$600 million 30-year 2.45% Notes in the U.S. debt capital markets, raised $390 million of one year supplementary revolving credit facilities and closed a second tranche of a variable rate, 20-year term loan for US$310 million.

The long-term impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic, including the extent of the impact on the business, financial position, results of operations or liquidity, remain unknown. With the continued global spread of the COVID-19 pandemic and the consequent unprecedented economic uncertainty, the Company withdrew its 2020 guidance, provided in its 2019 year-end earnings press release on January 28, 2020. Investors should no longer rely on this guidance.

The following table lists key measures of the Company's operating performance, for the purpose of measuring the efficiency and effectiveness of train operations:

| | Three months ended June 30 | | | Six months ended June 30 | | |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------|---------|----------------------|--------------------------|---------|----------------------|
| | 2020 | 2019 | % Change Fav (Unfav) | 2020 | 2019 | % Change Fav (Unfav) |
| Gross ton miles (GTMs) (millions) ⁽¹⁾ | 102,386 | 127,606 | (20)% | 216,365 | 243,465 | (11)% |
| Train weight (tons) ⁽²⁾ | 9,922 | 9,311 | 7 % | 9,491 | 9,002 | 5 % |
| Through network train speed (miles per hour) ⁽³⁾ | 19.9 | 19.0 | 5 % | 18.9 | 18.0 | 5 % |
| Fuel efficiency (US gallons of locomotive fuel consumed per 1,000 GTMs) ⁽⁴⁾ | 0.88 | 0.90 | 2 % | 0.92 | 0.95 | 3 % |
| Through dwell (entire railroad, hours) ⁽⁵⁾ | 8.4 | 7.2 | (17)% | 8.4 | 7.9 | (6)% |
| Car velocity (car miles per day) ⁽⁶⁾ | 201 | 214 | (6)% | 190 | 192 | (1)% |

(1) GTMs: The workload performed by system trains in hauling freight or equipment. GTMs are calculated by multiplying the trailing weight by the distance the train moved. A larger number is an indicator of more traffic (and thus more revenue) being moved.

(2) Train weight: An efficiency measurement on how much tonnage each mainline train handles on average as it crosses the network. Calculated as the total of GTMs and divided by total train miles, this measure provides insight on how well each train was maximized in terms of its capacity to move traffic. This operating measure was formerly named Train productivity.

(3) Through network train speed: A measure of the line-haul movement from origin to destination, including time at terminals. The average speed is calculated by dividing train miles by total hours operated, excluding yard and local trains, passenger trains, maintenance of way trains, and foreign trains. This measure represents the fluidity of trains on the network, with a higher value also indicating a more fluid network.

(4) Fuel efficiency: This measure represents how efficient the Company is in the generation and utilization of locomotive horsepower in freight train operations, with a lower number indicating improved performance. Fuel efficiency is defined as US gallons of locomotive fuel consumed per 1,000 GTMs. With approximately 85% of CN's direct Greenhouse Gas (GHG) emissions generated from rail operations, CN believes the best way to reduce its carbon footprint is by continuously improving fuel efficiency. Over the years, this focus has resulted in significant progress in decoupling volume growth from carbon emissions. CN is making a positive contribution in the fight against climate change by offering a carbon efficient and environmentally friendly way to move goods.

(5) Through dwell: The average time a car resides within terminal boundaries expressed in hours. The measurement begins with a customer release, received interchange, or train arrival event and ends with a customer placement (actual or constructive), delivered or offered in interchange, or train departure event. This excludes stored, bad ordered, maintenance of way cars, or cars with dwell greater than 10 days. This measure represents the efficiency of handling cars within the terminal, with a lower value indicating higher performance.

(6) Car velocity: The average miles per day traveled by loaded and empty cars (active system, foreign and private cars) on company lines. This measure represents the fluidity of cars on the network, calculated by the sum of miles each car traveled divided by the sum of all of the cars' active time, with a higher value indicating a smoother and more fluid operation.

GTMs were negatively impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic and in the first quarter by the illegal blockades. In response to the reduction in volumes, the Company adjusted its operations in an effort to maximize productivity, which resulted in record Train weight during the second quarter. These actions led to traffic dwelling longer to make connections at terminals, increased Through dwell and reduced Car velocity. The Company's productivity efforts were demonstrated in improvements to Through network train speed and in an all-time record in Fuel efficiency.

Management's Discussion and Analysis

Financial results

Second quarter and first half of 2020 compared to corresponding period in 2019

Net income for the second quarter of 2020 was $545 million, a decrease of $817 million, or 60%, and diluted earnings per share decreased by 59% to $0.77, when compared to the same period in 2019. Net income for the six months ended June 30, 2020 was $1,556 million, a decrease of $592 million, or 28%, and diluted earnings per share decreased by 26% to $2.18, when compared to the same period in 2019.

Operating income for the quarter ended June 30, 2020 decreased by $897 million, or 53%, to $785 million when compared to the same period in 2019. Operating income for the six months ended June 30, 2020 decreased by $762 million, or 28%, to $2,000 million when compared to the same period in 2019.

The operating ratio, defined as operating expenses as a percentage of revenues, was 75.5% in the second quarter of 2020, compared to 57.5% in the second quarter of 2019, an 18.0-point increase. The six-month operating ratio was 70.4% in 2020 compared to 63.2% in 2019, a 7.2-point increase.

Revenues for the second quarter of 2020 were $3,209 million compared to $3,959 million in the same period in 2019, a decrease of $750 million, or 19%. Revenues for the first half of 2020 were $6,754 million, a decrease of $749 million, or 10%, when compared to the same period in 2019. The decreases in both periods were mainly due to lower volumes across most commodity groups caused by the COVID-19 pandemic and lower applicable fuel surcharge rates, which were partly offset by increased shipments of Canadian grain, higher Canadian coal exports via west coast ports as well as freight rate increases.

Operating expenses for the second quarter of 2020 were $2,424 million compared to $2,277 million for the same period in 2019, an increase of $147 million, or 6%. Operating expenses for the first half of 2020 were $4,754 million compared to $4,741 million for the same period in 2019, an increase of $13 million. The increases were mainly driven by a loss on assets held for sale resulting from the Company's decision to market for sale for on-going rail operations, certain non-core lines, partly offset by lower fuel and labor costs.

Non-GAAP measures

This MD&A makes reference to non-GAAP measures, including adjusted performance measures, constant currency, free cash flow and adjusted debt-to-adjusted earnings before interest, income taxes, depreciation and amortization (EBITDA) multiple, that do not have any standardized meaning prescribed by GAAP and therefore, may not be comparable to similar measures presented by other companies. From management's perspective, these non-GAAP measures are useful measures of performance and provide investors with supplementary information to assess the Company's results of operations and liquidity. These non-GAAP measures should not be considered in isolation or as a substitute for financial measures prepared in accordance with GAAP.

For further details of these non-GAAP measures, including a reconciliation to the most directly comparable GAAP financial measures, refer to the sections entitled Adjusted performance measures, Constant currency and Liquidity and capital resources.

Adjusted performance measures

Management believes that adjusted net income, adjusted earnings per share, adjusted operating income and adjusted operating ratio are useful measures of performance that can facilitate period-to-period comparisons, as they exclude items that do not necessarily arise as part of CN's normal day-to-day operations and could distort the analysis of trends in business performance. Management uses adjusted performance measures, which exclude certain income and expense items in its results that management believes are not reflective of CN's underlying business operations, to set performance goals and as a means to measure CN's performance. The exclusion of such income and expense items in these measures does not, however, imply that these items are necessarily non-recurring. These measures do not have any standardized meaning prescribed by GAAP and therefore, may not be comparable to similar measures presented by other companies.

For the three and six months ended June 30, 2020, the Company's adjusted net income was $908 million, or $1.28 per diluted share, and $1,778 million, or $2.49 per diluted share, respectively. The adjusted figures for the three and six months ended June 30, 2020 exclude a loss of $486 million, or $363 million after-tax ($0.51 per diluted share) resulting from the Company's decision to market for sale for on-going rail operations, certain non-core lines in Wisconsin, Michigan and Ontario. The adjusted figures for the six months ended June 30, 2020 also exclude a current income tax recovery of $141 million ($0.20 per diluted share) in the first quarter resulting from the enactment of the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act, a U.S. tax-and-spending package aimed at providing additional stimulus to address the economic impact of the COVID-19 pandemic.

Management's Discussion and Analysis

For the three and six months ended June 30, 2019, the Company's adjusted net income was $1,250 million, or $1.73 per diluted share, and $2,098 million, or $2.90 per diluted share, respectively. The adjusted figures for the three and six months ended June 30, 2019 exclude a deferred income tax recovery of $112 million ($0.15 per diluted share), resulting from the enactment of a lower provincial corporate income tax rate. The adjusted figures for the six months ended June 30, 2019 also exclude a depreciation and amortization expense of $84 million, or $62 million after-tax ($0.09 per diluted share) in the first quarter, related to costs previously capitalized for a Positive Train Control (PTC) back office system following the deployment of a replacement system.

The following table provides a reconciliation of net income and earnings per share, as reported for the three and six months ended June 30, 2020 and 2019, to the adjusted performance measures presented herein:

Constant currency

Financial results at constant currency allow results to be viewed without the impact of fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates, thereby facilitating period-to-period comparisons in the analysis of trends in business performance. Measures at constant currency are considered non-GAAP measures and do not have any standardized meaning prescribed by GAAP and therefore, may not be comparable to similar measures presented by other companies. Financial results at constant currency are obtained by translating the current period results denominated in US dollars at the foreign exchange rates of the comparable period in the prior year. The average foreign exchange rates were $1.39 and $1.37 per US$1.00 for the three and six months ended June 30, 2020, respectively, and $1.34 and $1.33 per US$1.00 for the three and six months ended June 30, 2019, respectively.

On a constant currency basis, the Company's net income for the three and six months ended June 30, 2020 would have been lower by $13 million ($0.02 per diluted share).

Revenues for the quarter ended June 30, 2020 were $3,209 million compared to $3,959 million in the same period in 2019, a decrease of $750 million, or 19%. Revenues for the first half of 2020 were $6,754 million, a decrease of $749 million, or 10%, when compared to the same period in 2019. The decreases in both periods were mainly due to lower volumes across most commodity groups caused by the COVID-19 pandemic and lower applicable fuel surcharge rates, which were partly offset by increased shipments of Canadian grain, higher Canadian coal exports via west coast ports as well as freight rate increases.

Fuel surcharge revenues decreased by $93 million in the second quarter and $115 million in the first half of 2020 when compared to the same periods in 2019, as a result of lower applicable fuel surcharge rates and lower volumes.

RTMs, measuring the relative weight and distance of freight transported by the Company, declined by 18% in the second quarter and 10% in the first half of 2020 when compared to the same periods in 2019. Freight revenue per RTM decreased by 1% in the second quarter and remained flat in the first half of 2020 when compared to the same periods in 2019, mainly due to lower applicable fuel surcharge rates, partly offset by freight rate increases.

Revenues for this commodity group decreased by $190 million, or 25%, in the second quarter and $134 million, or 9%, in the first half of 2020 when compared to the same periods in 2019. The decreases in both periods were mainly due to the collapse in global oil prices and reduced demand due to the COVID-19 pandemic, which resulted in lower volumes of petroleum crude, chemicals and plastic products, refined petroleum products and natural gas liquids. The decreases were partly offset by liquidated damages relating to volume commitments under customer contracts and freight rate increases.

Revenue per RTM increased by 23% in the second quarter and 10% in the first half of 2020 when compared to the same periods in 2019, mainly due to a significant decrease in the average length of haul, liquidated damages relating to volume commitments under customer contracts and freight rate increases.

| Revenues (millions) | $ 171 | $ 200 | (15%) | (17%) | $ 292 | $ 331 | (12%) | (13%) |

Other revenues decreased by $29 million, or 15%, in the second quarter and $39 million, or 12%, in the first half of 2020 when compared to the same periods in 2019. The decreases in both periods were mainly due to lower revenues from automotive logistics and vessels; partly offset by higher freight forwarding revenues.

Operating expenses

Operating expenses for the second quarter of 2020 were $2,424 million compared to $2,277 million in the same period of 2019. Operating expenses for the first half of 2020 were $4,754 million compared to $4,741 million in the same period of 2019. The increases of $147 million, or 6%, in the second quarter and $13 million in the first half of 2020 were mainly driven by a loss on assets held for sale resulting from the Company's decision to market for sale for on-going rail operations, certain non-core lines, partly offset by lower fuel and labor costs.

Labor and fringe benefits

Labor and fringe benefits expense decreased by $118 million, or 17%, in the second quarter and $173 million, or 12%, in the first half of 2020 when compared to the same periods in 2019. The decreases were primarily driven by lower average headcount, incentive compensation and overtime costs.

Purchased services and material

Purchased services and material expense decreased by $53 million, or 9%, in the second quarter and $33 million, or 3%, in the first half of 2020 when compared to the same periods in 2019. The decrease in the second quarter was mainly due to lower costs for services purchased from outside contractors and lower material costs, driven by lower volumes. The decrease in the first half was mainly due to lower material costs and lower costs for services purchased from outside contractors, driven by lower volumes; partly offset by the inclusion of TransX.

Fuel

Fuel expense decreased by $215 million, or 49%, in the second quarter and $253 million, or 30%, in the first half of 2020 when compared to the same periods in 2019. The decreases were mainly due to lower fuel prices and volumes, as well as efficiency gains.

Depreciation and amortization

Depreciation and amortization expense increased by $41 million, or 11%, in the second quarter and decreased by $7 million, or 1%, in the first half of 2020 when compared to the same periods in 2019. The increase in the second quarter was mainly due to a higher depreciable asset base resulting from increased capital expenditures in recent years. The decrease in the first half was mainly due to a 2019 expense of $84 million related to costs previously capitalized for a PTC back office system following the deployment of a replacement system, partly offset by a higher depreciable asset base resulting from increased capital expenditures in recent years.

Management's Discussion and Analysis

Equipment rents

Equipment rents expense increased by $3 million, or 3%, in the second quarter and decreased by $6 million, or 3%, in the first half of 2020 when compared to the same periods in 2019. The increase in the second quarter was mainly due to higher locomotive horsepower-hour expense due to more locomotives that were off line in 2019, partly offset by lower car hire expense due to reduced volumes. The decrease in the first half was mainly due to lower car hire expense.

Casualty and other

Casualty and other expense increased by $3 million, or 3%, in the second quarter and remained flat in the first half of 2020 when compared to the same periods in 2019. The increase in the second quarter was mainly due to lower passenger train recoveries, partly offset by lower employee travel expenses. In the first half of 2020, the lower passenger train recoveries offset the lower employee travel expenses.

Loss on assets held for sale

In the second quarter of 2020, the Company recorded a loss of $486 million on assets held for sale, resulting from the Company's decision to market for sale for on-going rail operations, certain non-core lines in Wisconsin, Michigan and Ontario.

Other income and expenses

Interest expense

Interest expense was $144 million and $283 million for the three and six months ended June 30, 2020, respectively, compared to $136 million and $267 million, respectively, for the same periods in 2019. The increases were mainly due to a higher average level of debt and the negative translation impact of a weaker Canadian dollar; partly offset by a lower average interest rate.

Other components of net periodic benefit income

Other components of net periodic benefit income was $80 million and $158 million for the three and six months ended June 30, 2020, respectively, compared to $83 million and $163 million, respectively, for the same periods in 2019.

Other income (loss)

For the three and six months ended June 30, 2020, the Company recorded other loss of $4 million and other income of $7 million, respectively, compared to other income of $23 million and $25 million, respectively, for the same periods in 2019. The decreases were primarily due to minor gains on land sales in 2019.

Income tax expense

Income tax expense was $172 million and $326 million for the three and six months ended June 30, 2020, respectively, compared to $290 million and $535 million, respectively, for the same periods in 2019. Income tax expense for the six months ended June 30, 2020 included a current income tax recovery of $141 million in the first quarter resulting from the enactment of the CARES Act. Income tax expense for the three and six months ended June 30, 2019 included a deferred income tax recovery of $112 million resulting from the enactment of a lower provincial corporate income tax rate.

On March 27, 2020, the U.S. government enacted the CARES Act, which included corporate income tax measures allowing U.S. federal net operating losses (NOLs) arising in tax years 2018, 2019, and 2020 to be fully carried back to each of the five tax years preceding the tax year of the NOL. As a result of the CARES Act, the Company reclassified its existing deferred income tax asset of $213 million on the NOL that arose in 2019, to a current income tax receivable and recorded a current income tax recovery of $141 million to reflect an amount recoverable at the higher U.S. federal corporate income tax rate of 35% applicable to pre-2018 tax years.

The effective tax rates for the three and six months ended June 30, 2020 were 24.0% and 17.3%, respectively, compared to 17.6% and 19.9%, respectively, for the same periods in 2019. Excluding the aforementioned income tax recoveries, the effective tax rates for the six months ended June 30, 2020 and the three and six months ended June 30, 2019 were 24.8%, 24.3%, and 24.1% respectively. The increase in the six-month ended June 30, 2020 effective tax rate was mainly attributable to the impact of a lower excess tax benefit resulting from the settlement of equity settled awards under the Company's stock-based compensation plans.

(1) Certain quarters include items that management believes do not necessarily arise as part of CN's normal day-to-day operations and can distort the analysis of trends in business performance. See the section of this MD&A entitled Adjusted performance measures as well as the Company's 2019 Annual MD&A for additional information on these items.

Revenues generated by the Company during the year are influenced by seasonal weather conditions, general economic conditions, cyclical demand for rail transportation, and competitive forces in the transportation marketplace (see the section entitled Business risks of the Company's 2019 Annual MD&A). Operating expenses reflect the impact of freight volumes, seasonal weather conditions, labor costs, fuel prices, and the Company's productivity initiatives. Fluctuations in the Canadian dollar relative to the US dollar have also affected the conversion of the Company's US dollar-denominated revenues and expenses and resulted in fluctuations in net income in the rolling eight quarters presented above.

Liquidity and capital resources

An analysis of the Company's liquidity and capital resources is provided in the section entitled Liquidity and capital resources of the Company's 2019 Annual MD&A. There were no significant changes during the first half of 2020, except as noted below.

The Company expects cash from operations and its various sources of financing to be sufficient to meet its ongoing obligations.

Operating activities

Net cash provided by operating activities increased by $41 million in the second quarter and $224 million in the first half of 2020 when compared to the same periods in 2019. The increase in the second quarter was mainly due to favorable changes in working capital, partly offset by lower cash earnings. The increase in the first half was mainly due to favorable changes in working capital, partly offset by advance consideration received in 2019 related to a long-term rail freight contract.

Pension contributions

The Company's contributions to its various defined benefit pension plans are made in accordance with the applicable legislation in Canada and the U.S. and such contributions follow minimum and maximum thresholds as determined by actuarial valuations.

Actuarial valuations are generally required on an annual basis for all Canadian defined benefit pension plans, or when deemed appropriate by the Office of the Superintendent of Financial Institutions (OSFI). Actuarial valuations are also required annually for the Company's U.S. qualified defined benefit pension plans. For accounting purposes, the funded status is calculated under GAAP. For funding purposes, the funded status of the Company's Canadian registered defined benefit pension plans is calculated under going concern and solvency scenarios as prescribed under federal pension legislation and is subject to guidance issued by the Canadian Institute of Actuaries and OSFI. The federal pension legislation requires funding deficits to be paid over a number of years. Alternatively, a letter of credit can be subscribed to fulfill solvency deficit payments. The OSFI proposed revisions to its Instruction guide for the Preparation of Actuarial Reports for defined benefit pension plans. If these proposed revisions become final, they would affect the December 31, 2020 actuarial valuations by reducing the solvency status of the Company's defined benefit pension plans, and may negatively impact the Company's pension funding requirements starting in year 2021. The OSFI has temporarily suspended their consultation in light of the COVID-19 pandemic.

The Company's most recently filed actuarial valuations for funding purposes for its Canadian registered defined benefit pension plans conducted as at December 31, 2019 indicated a funding excess on a going concern basis of approximately $3.5 billion and a funding excess on a solvency basis of approximately $0.6 billion calculated using the three-year average of the plans' hypothetical wind-up ratio.

Pension contributions for the six months ended June 30, 2020 and 2019 of $79 million and $91 million, respectively, primarily represent contributions to the CN Pension Plan, for the current service cost as determined under the Company's applicable actuarial valuations for funding purposes. In 2020, the Company now expects to make total cash contributions of approximately $120 million for all of its pension plans.

Adverse changes to the assumptions used to calculate the Company's funding status, particularly the discount rate, as well as changes to existing federal pension legislation or regulator guidance could significantly impact the Company's future pension contributions.

Additional information relating to the pension plans is provided in Note 15 – Pensions and other postretirement benefits to the Company's 2019 Annual Consolidated Financial Statements.

Management's Discussion and Analysis

Income tax refunds and payments

Net income tax refunds for the six months ended June 30, 2020 were $11 million compared to net income tax payments of $491 million for the same period in 2019. The Company does not expect to make any instalment payments in Canada until September 1, 2020 as a result of deferrals of all required current year instalment payments in Canada until September 1, 2020 as permitted under the various COVID-19 pandemic measures announced by the Canadian authorities, and 2019 instalment overpayments applied to the current period. For 2020, the Company's net income tax payments are expected to be approximately $600 million, and although it reflects the impacts of the CARES Act, it does not include the anticipated refund related to the carryback of U.S. federal net operating losses as it is only expected to be received in early 2021.

Investing activities

Net cash used in investing activities decreased by $454 million in the second quarter and $725 million in the first half of 2020 when compared to the same periods in 2019, mainly due to lower property additions. Also contributing to the decrease in the first half of 2020 was the Company's acquisition of TransX in the first quarter of 2019.

Property additions

Acquisitions

On December 2, 2019, the Company acquired H&R for a total purchase price of $105 million, of which $95 million was paid on the closing date, $8 million related to funds withheld for the indemnification of claims to be paid within twenty months of the acquisition date, plus $2 million cash paid since the closing to reflect the settlement of working capital.

The preliminary allocation of the purchase price to the assets acquired and liabilities assumed was performed on the basis of their respective fair values. The Company used a third party to assist in establishing the fair values of the assets acquired and liabilities assumed which resulted in the recognition of identifiable net assets of $93 million and goodwill of $12 million. The goodwill acquired through the business combination is mainly attributable to the premium of an established business operation. The Company's purchase price allocation is preliminary and subject to change over the measurement period, which may be up to one year from the acquisition date.

The Company's Consolidated Balance Sheets include the assets and liabilities of H&R as of December 2, 2019, the acquisition date. Since the acquisition date, H&R's results of operations have been included in the Company's results of operations. The Company has not provided pro forma information relating to the pre-acquisition period as it was not material.

On March 20, 2019, the Company acquired TransX. The total purchase price of $192 million included an initial cash payment of $170 million, additional consideration of $25 million paid on August 27, 2019 upon achievement of targets, less an adjustment of $3 million in the fourth quarter of 2019 to reflect the settlement of working capital.

The allocation of the purchase price to the assets acquired and liabilities assumed was performed on the basis of their respective fair values. The Company used a third party to assist in establishing the fair values of the assets acquired and liabilities assumed which resulted in the recognition of identifiable net assets of $134 million and goodwill of $58 million. The goodwill acquired through the business combination is mainly attributable to the premium of an established business operation. The Company's purchase price allocation is now final and no longer subject to change as the measurement period permitted to be up to one year from the acquisition date is closed.

Management's Discussion and Analysis

The Company's Consolidated Balance Sheets include the assets and liabilities of TransX as of March 20, 2019, the acquisition date. Since the acquisition date, TransX's results of operations have been included in the Company's results of operations. The Company has not provided pro forma information relating to the pre-acquisition period as it was not material.

See Note 3 - Business combinations to the Company's unaudited Interim Consolidated Financial Statements for additional information.

2020 Capital expenditure program

In light of anticipated lower volumes for the year, the 2020 capital expenditure program was reduced in the first quarter of 2020 by $0.2 billion, partly offset by approximately $0.1 billion due to the negative impact of foreign exchange, resulting in a net $0.1 billion reduction from $3.0 billion to $2.9 billion. Additional details of the Company's 2020 capital program are provided in the section entitled Liquidity and capital resources – Cash flows of the Company's 2019 Annual MD&A.

Financing activities

Net cash used in financing activities increased by $395 million in the second quarter and $487 million in the first half of 2020 when compared to the same periods in 2019. The increase in the second quarter was primarily driven by higher net repayment of commercial paper; partly offset by lower repurchases of common shares and higher net issuance of debt. The increase in the first half was primarily due to higher net repayment of commercial paper and higher net repayment of debt; partly offset by lower repurchases of common shares.

Debt financing activities

Debt financing activities in the first half of 2020 included the following:

Additional information relating to the Company's outstanding debt securities is provided in Note 13 – Debt to the Company's 2019 Annual Consolidated Financial Statements.

Repurchase of common shares

The Company may repurchase its common shares pursuant to a Normal Course Issuer Bid (NCIB) at prevailing market prices plus brokerage fees, or such other prices as may be permitted by the Toronto Stock Exchange. Under its current NCIB, the Company may repurchase up to 16.0 million common shares between February 1, 2020 and January 31, 2021. Shares purchased by the Share Trusts are retained until the Company instructs the trustee to transfer shares to participants of the Share Units Plan or the ESIP. Free cash flow

Management believes that free cash flow is a useful measure of liquidity as it demonstrates the Company's ability to generate cash for debt obligations and for discretionary uses such as payment of dividends, share repurchases, and strategic opportunities. The Company defines its free cash flow measure as the difference between net cash provided by operating activities and net cash used in investing activities, adjusted for the impact of business acquisitions, if any. Free cash flow does not have any standardized meaning prescribed by GAAP and therefore, may not be comparable to similar measures presented by other companies.

Management's Discussion and Analysis

The following table provides a reconciliation of net cash provided by operating activities as reported for the three and six months ended June 30, 2020 and 2019, to free cash flow:

| In millions | Three months ended June 30 | | Six months ended June 30 | |

Adjusted debt-to-adjusted EBITDA multiple

Management believes that the adjusted debt-to-adjusted EBITDA multiple is a useful credit measure because it reflects the Company's ability to service its debt and other long-term obligations. The Company calculates the adjusted debt-to-adjusted EBITDA multiple as adjusted debt divided by adjusted EBITDA. These measures do not have any standardized meaning prescribed by GAAP and therefore, may not be comparable to similar measures presented by other companies.

The following table provides a reconciliation of debt and net income to the adjusted measures presented below, which have been used to calculate the adjusted debt-to-adjusted EBITDA multiple:

Off balance sheet arrangements

Guarantees and indemnifications

In the normal course of business, the Company enters into agreements that may involve providing guarantees or indemnifications to third parties and others, which may extend beyond the term of the agreements. These include, but are not limited to, standby letters of credit, surety and other bonds, and indemnifications that are customary for the type of transaction or for the railway business. As at June 30, 2020, the Company has not recorded a liability with respect to guarantees and indemnifications. Additional information relating to guarantees and indemnifications is provided in Note 14 - Major commitments and contingencies to the Company's unaudited Interim Consolidated Financial Statements.

Management's Discussion and Analysis

Outstanding share data

As at July 21, 2020, the Company had 709.9 million common shares and 3.9 million stock options outstanding.

Financial instruments

Risk management

In the normal course of business, the Company is exposed to various risks from its use of financial instruments, such as credit risk, liquidity risk, and market risks which include foreign currency risk, interest rate risk and commodity price risk. A description of these risks and how the Company manages them, is provided in the section entitled Financial instruments of the Company's 2019 Annual MD&A.

Derivative financial instruments

As at June 30, 2020, the Company had outstanding foreign exchange forward contracts with a notional value of US$938 million (US$1,088 million as at December 31, 2019). For the three and six months ended June 30, 2020, the Company recorded a loss of $60 million and a gain of $66 million, respectively, related to foreign exchange forward contracts compared to losses of $26 million and $70 million, respectively, for the same periods in 2019. These gains and losses were largely offset by the re-measurement of US dollar-denominated monetary assets and liabilities recorded in Other income.

As at June 30, 2020, the fair value of outstanding foreign exchange forward contracts included in Other current assets and Accounts payable and other was $8 million and $28 million, respectively ($nil and $24 million, respectively, as at December 31, 2019).

Fair value of financial instruments

As at June 30, 2020, the Company's debt, excluding finance leases, had a carrying amount of $14,052 million ($13,662 million as at December 31, 2019) and a fair value of $16,966 million ($15,667 million as at December 31, 2019).

Additional information relating to financial instruments is provided in Note 15 – Financial instruments to the Company's unaudited Interim Consolidated Financial Statements.

Recent accounting pronouncements and policies

The following recent Accounting Standards Update (ASU) issued by the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) was adopted by the Company during the first half of 2020:

ASU 2016-13 Financial instruments - Credit losses (Topic 326): Measurement of credit losses on financial instruments

The ASU requires financial assets measured at amortized cost to be presented at the net amount expected to be collected. The new standard replaces the current incurred loss impairment methodology with one that reflects expected credit losses.

The Company adopted this standard in the first quarter of 2020 with an effective date of January 1, 2020. The adoption of this standard did not have an impact on the Company's Consolidated Financial Statements, other than for the new disclosure requirements.

The following recent ASU issued by FASB came into effect in the first half of 2020 and has not been adopted by the Company:

ASU 2020-04 Reference rate reform (Topic 848): Facilitation of the effects of reference rate reform on financial reporting

London Interbank Offered Rate (LIBOR) is a benchmark interest rate referenced in a variety of agreements that are used by all types of entities. At the end of 2021, banks will no longer be required to report information that is used to determine LIBOR. As a result, LIBOR could be discontinued. Other interest rates used globally could also be discontinued for similar reasons.

The ASU provides optional expedients and exceptions for applying generally accepted accounting principles to transactions affected by reference rate reform if certain criteria are met. These transactions include contract modifications, hedging relationships, and sale or transfer of debt securities classified as held-to-maturity.

Management's Discussion and Analysis

The provisions of the ASU are effective starting on March 12, 2020; however, they will only be available until December 31, 2022, when the reference rate replacement activity is expected to be completed. The Company may apply the provisions of the ASU as of the beginning of a reporting period when the elections are made, or prospectively from the date within an interim period that includes or is subsequent to March 12, 2020. The Company currently has outstanding loans and finance lease obligations referencing LIBOR totaling approximately US$350 million that would be affected by the provisions of this ASU. The Company is evaluating the effects that the adoption of the ASU will have on its Consolidated Financial Statements and related disclosures, and whether it will elect to apply any of the optional expedients and exceptions provided in the ASU.

Other recently issued ASUs required to be applied for periods beginning on or after June 30, 2020 have been evaluated by the Company and are not expected to have a significant impact on the Company's Consolidated Financial Statements.

In the first quarter of 2020, the following accounting policy was updated as a result of the adoption of ASU 2016-13 Financial instruments - Credit losses (Topic 326): Measurement of credit losses on financial instruments:

Accounting policy for accounts receivable

Accounts receivable are recorded at cost net of billing adjustments and an allowance for credit losses. The allowance for credit losses is based on relevant information about past events, including historical experience, current conditions, and reasonable and supportable forecasts that affect the collectibility of the reported amount. When a receivable is deemed uncollectible, it is written off against the allowance for credit losses. Subsequent recoveries of amounts previously written off are credited to bad debt expense in Casualty and other in the Consolidated Statements of Income.

In the second quarter of 2020, the following accounting policy was implemented as a result of the Company's decision to market for sale for on-going rail operations, certain non-core lines:

Accounting policy for assets held for sale

Assets that are classified as held for sale are measured at the lower of their carrying amount or fair value less expected selling costs ("estimated selling price") with a loss recognized to the extent that the carrying amount exceeds the estimated selling price. The classification is applicable at the date upon which the sale of assets is probable, and the assets are available for immediate sale in their present condition. The transfer of the assets must also be expected to qualify for recognition as a completed sale within the year following the date of classification.

Assets once classified as held for sale, are not subject to depreciation or amortization and both the assets and any liabilities directly associated with the assets held for sale are classified as current in the Company's Consolidated Balance Sheets.

Subsequent changes to the estimated selling price of assets held for sale are recorded as gains or losses to income wherein the recognition of subsequent gains is limited to the cumulative loss previously recognized.

Critical accounting estimates

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with GAAP requires management to make estimates, judgments and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities, and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements. On an ongoing basis, management reviews its estimates based upon available information. Actual results could differ from these estimates. The Company's policies for income taxes, capital expenditures, depreciation, pensions and other postretirement benefits, personal injury and other claims, and environmental matters, require management's more significant judgments and estimates in the preparation of the Company's consolidated financial statements and, as such, are considered to be critical. Reference is made to the section entitled Critical accounting estimates of the Company's 2019 Annual MD&A for a detailed description of the Company's critical accounting estimates. There have not been any material changes to these estimates in the first half of 2020, except as disclosed in the section of this MD&A entitled Strategy overview - Assets held of sale.

Management discusses the development and selection of the Company's critical accounting policies, including the underlying estimates and assumptions, with the Audit Committee of the Company's Board of Directors. The Audit Committee has reviewed the Company's related disclosures.

Business risks

In the normal course of business, the Company is exposed to various business risks and uncertainties that can have an effect on the Company's results of operations, financial position, or liquidity. While some exposures may be reduced by the Company's risk management strategies, many risks are driven by external factors beyond the Company's control or are of a nature which cannot be eliminated.

Reference is made to the section entitled Business risks of the Company's 2019 Annual MD&A for a detailed description of such key areas of business risks and uncertainties with respect to: Competition, Environmental matters, Personal injury and other legal claims, Labor negotiations, Regulation, Economic conditions, Pension funding volatility, Reliance on technology and related cybersecurity risk, Trade restrictions, Terrorism and international conflicts, Customer credit risk, Liquidity, Supplier concentration, Availability of qualified personnel, Fuel costs, Foreign exchange, Interest rates, Transportation network disruptions, Severe weather and Climate change, which is incorporated herein by reference. Additional risks and uncertainties not currently known to management or that may currently not be considered material by management, could nevertheless also have an adverse effect on the Company's business.

The following are material changes to the risks described in the Company's 2019 Annual MD&A, as well as an update on labor workforce and regulatory matters.

Pandemic risk & economic downturn

Severe disruptions in regional economies and the world economy can be caused by the pandemic outbreak of a contagious illness, such as the current COVID-19 pandemic. The transmission of COVID-19 and efforts to contain its spread have recently resulted in international, national and local border closings, travel restrictions, significant disruptions to business operations, supply chains and customer activity and demand, service cancellations, reductions and other changes, significant challenges in healthcare service preparation and delivery, and quarantines, as well as considerable general concern and uncertainty, all of which have negatively affected the economic environment and may in the future have further and larger impacts. It is not possible to predict what additional measures and restrictions will be imposed by governmental authorities and the period in time during which those measures and restrictions will apply. Prolonged border closings and ensuing economic and supply chain disruptions could further materially affect the Company's financial results and operations. The COVID-19 pandemic could also further and significantly impact freight demand and commodity prices in connection with the ensuing economic downturn, supply shortages, trade disruption, temporary staff shortages, temporary closures of facilities in geographic locations more importantly impacted by the outbreak. The scope and severity of such disruptions and their impact on the Company's financial results and operations have been, and are expected to continue to be material.

Trade restrictions

On March 13, 2020, Canada ratified the United States-Mexico-Canada Agreement (USMCA), the new trade agreement replaces the North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA). All three countries have ratified the agreement which came into force on July 1, 2020.

There can be no assurance that the potential outcome of other ongoing trade actions taken by governments and agencies globally will not materially adversely affect the volume of rail shipments and/or revenues from commodities carried by the Company, and thus materially and negatively impact earnings and/or cash flow.

Transportation network disruptions

Due to the integrated nature of the North American freight transportation infrastructure, the Company's operations may be negatively affected by service disruptions of its own network, including illegal blockades, as well as of other transportation links such as ports and other railroads which interchange with the Company. A significant prolonged service disruption of CN's network or one or more of these entities could have an adverse effect on the Company's results of operations, financial position or liquidity. Furthermore, deterioration in the cooperative relationships with the Company's connecting carriers could directly affect the Company's operations.

Labor workforce

As at June 30, 2020, CN employed a total of 15,836 employees in Canada, of which 10,919, or 69%, were unionized employees, and 6,276 employees in the U.S., of which 5,180, or 83%, were unionized employees.

Regulation

In order to facilitate the continued movement of goods during the COVID-19 pandemic, regulatory agencies in the U.S. and Canada have issued waivers or exemptions to railway companies providing relief from the strict application of some regulations. This relief was provided to facilitate social distancing and other constraints associated with the COVID-19 pandemic that would prevent railways from complying with requirements in a manner consistent with existing provisions. The regulatory agencies have made clear that this relief can only be used when the circumstances do not allow railways to comply and impose on railways requirements to document the circumstances when the relief is used.

Economic regulation - U.S.

The Passenger Rail Investment and Improvement Act of 2008 (PRIIA) required Amtrak and the Federal Railroad Administration (FRA) of joint authority to promulgate the PRIIA performance standards. The prior metrics were vacated and the arbitration provision in the statute was severed by the U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia. On March 31, 2020, the FRA proposed metrics for measuring performance. The FRA held a public hearing by way of conference call on April 30, 2020. CN, along with other freight railroads and Association of American Railroads (AAR) submitted comments on June 1, 2020. As part of PRIIA, U.S. Congress authorized the STB to investigate any railroad over whose track Amtrak operates that fails to meet the performance standards under PRIIA and the STB is authorized to assess damages against the host railroad.

In 2019, the STB proposed rules and policy statements and received comments related to the reporting of rail service data, the agency's methodology for determining the rail industry's cost of capital, and rate reasonableness standards, in addition to issuing proposals concerning demurrage and accessorial charges.

On April 30, 2020, the STB adopted a final rule and policy statement relating to demurrage and proposed supplemental rules relating to demurrage invoices.

On June 23, 2020, the STB withdrew its proposal to change its existing methodology for determining the rail industry's cost of capital.

Safety regulation - Canada

On February 7, 2020, the Minister issued an order restricting to speed of trains carrying dangerous goods. On February 16, 2020, the Minister revised the order to take into account the substantial investments made to equip main line tracks with automated signaling technology, on which the vast majority of CN's traffic is handled. The revised order enabled the Company to recover more efficiently from the illegal blockades. The Minister has issued a new Ministerial Order taking effect on April 1, 2020 to replace the order issued on February 16, 2020. This new order applies to trains moving crude oil or liquefied petroleum gas by establishing speed restrictions for non-winter and winter months.

Safety regulation - U.S.

On February 18, 2020, the FRA issued a final rule that requires each Class I railroad and certain shortline railroads to develop a Railroad Risk Reduction Program in a written plan that will be reviewed and approved by the FRA and will be subject to audit. Written plans must be submitted by August 2021. On April 10, 2020, the AAR sought reconsideration from the FRA on certain aspects of the final rule. On May 8, 2020, the FRA denied AAR's request for reconsideration of the implementation deadlines and will respond to two other points in AAR's petition in a separate decision.

PTC is a collision avoidance technology designed to override locomotive controls and prevent train-to-train collisions, overspeed derailments, misaligned switch derailments, and unauthorized incursions onto established work zones. In 2018, the Company completed the milestones required for the extension and the FRA approved the extension for the Company to complete full implementation by December 31, 2020. In the second quarter of 2020, CN continued to progress interoperability testing with tenant railroads. On June 29, 2020, CN submitted its Request for Amendment to the PTC Safety Plan, as per the FRA's request for all Class I railroads. Noncompliance with these or other laws and regulations may subject the Company to fines, penalties and/or service interruptions. The implementation of PTC will result in additional capital expenditures and operating costs. In order to implement PTC, the Company has invested in various information technology applications, including back office systems, aimed to enhance the reliability of PTC operations. If the Company identifies in the future, better or more reliable technology, the Company may consider implementing such technology, which may result in additional costs. PTC may result in reduced operational efficiency and service levels.

No assurance can be given that these and any other current or future regulatory or legislative initiatives by the U.S. federal government and agencies will not materially adversely affect the Company's results of operations or its competitive and financial position.

Controls and procedures

The Company's Chief Executive Officer and its Chief Financial Officer, after evaluating the effectiveness of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Exchange Act Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e)) as of June 30, 2020, have concluded that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures were effective.

During the second quarter ended June 30, 2020, there was no change in the Company's internal control over financial reporting that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company's internal control over financial reporting.
